Dm F Bb F C

Chorus 1

Dm F
Everything's coming up Milhouse
Bb F C
But Lisa still passes him by
Dm Bb
Everything's coming up Milhouse
F C
But his flood-pants can't keep his eyes .. dry

Verse 1

Dm F
... He gives Nelson Lisa's letter
Bb F C
... He believes that when she leaves him she'll like Milhouse better
Dm F
... He gets knocked to the floor
Bb F C
... Isn't that what a big sister is for?

Chorus 2

Dm F
Everything's coming up Milhouse
Bb F C
But nobody likes him at all
Dm Bb
Everything's coming up Milhouse
F C
But the friends that he's got laugh at him when he falls

Verse 2

Dm F
... Milhouse don't you know
Bb
Where-ever you go
F C
Trouble will follow
Dm F Bb
... Don't forget class is dismissed at the end
F C Dm
And don't lend your glasses to your best friend
Dm F
... He'll copy your earring
Bb
He'll sell you his soul

F C Dm
He'll lie about your goldfish even though you've got the bowl

Bridge

Dm F Bb
Millhouse
F C
Lower your eyebrows
Dm Am
... And the other one too
Bb F C
... Alone and blue like you

Chorus 3

Dm F
Everything's coming up Milhouse
Bb F C
But nobody likes you at all
Dm Bb
Everything's coming up Milhouse
F C
But the friends that you've got laugh at you when you fall

Interlude

Verse 4

Dm F
... In the treehouse you're a loner
Bb F C
... Lisa knows there's nothing funny 'bout the word
"tromboner"
Dm F
... She's bound to respect you soon
Bb F C
... When she sees that you'll do anything she asks of you
Dm F
... You're so vacant Milhouse
Bb
You could be old Gil's house
F
You're unsatisfactory
C Dm
As dry as your dad's cracker factory
Dm F
... Life's given you lemons
Bb
You've squozen your supply
F C Dm →
You know what it feels like when doves cry
