Verse 1

I've worked so long, every night and every day
Been through hours and hours of research and dozens of graves

The perfect girl -- turns out was just too hard to find
Dm G
... So I had to make her, but can I make her mine?

Em Am
Will she be friendly? Or will she break free?

Dm F G
Will she terrorize the villagers? Will she notice me?

Chorus

C G F
Hard work and science, are what I have to give
Dm Dm7 G7
... And all I'm asking in return
C
Is that you live

Verse 2

F Dm G
I know I'm smart, but a madman's all they see
C Am Dm
Now there's finally a person, who might love me for G
me

C F C F
She holds my heart, like the way that I held hers

Dm G
... The one from the cadaver Igor just disinterred
Em Am
... Left nothing to chance now, double-checked
every stitch
Dm F G
The Tesla coils are charging up, Igor through the switch

Repeat Chorus

Bridge

Dm C G
Ab Eb Bb Eb
... They call me a monster for making a monster
Ab Eb G
... But what is a monster anyway?
Ab Eb Bb
Someone frightening the mob, someone playing
Eb
god
Ab Eb Db
Or is it someone too scared to understand
G G7
and so they stand in love's way?
C F Dm G

Verse 3

C F C
Now here they come, sounds like the rabble's roused
F
again

C Am Dm
With their torches and their pitchforks, about to break
G in

C F C
There's just no point in trying to make them
F
understand

Dm G
I'll wait here by her gurney, holding on to her hand
Em Am
Her eyes open slowly, she gives me a smile
Dm F G
Now we've got each other, at least -- for a while

Repeat Chorus
