

They'll Need A Crane - They Might Be Giants

Verse 1

Am Em
Love sees love's happiness
C D G
but happiness can't see that love is sad, that love is sad
Am Em
sadness is hanging there
C D G
to show love somewhere something needs a change, they need a change

Chorus

G They'll need a crane, they'll need a crane
G D C
to take the house he built for her apart
Bm
to make it break it's gonna take Bm C D
a metal ball hung from a chain
G they'll need a crane, they'll need a crane
G D C
to pick the broken ruins up again
Bm
to mend her heart, to help him start Bm C D
to see a world apart from pain

Verse 2

Am Em Lad's gal is all he has

C D G gal's gladness hangs upon the love of lad, the love of lad
Am Em
some things gal says to lad
C D G aren't mean't as bad but cause a little pain, they cause him pain

Chorus

Bridge

Am G C D
Don't call me at work again, oh no the boss still hates me
G Am C
I'm just tired and I don't love you anymore and there's a D restaurant Em G A we should check out where the other nightmare people C like to go
G C G
I mean nice people baby wait I didn't mean to say D nightmare

Verse 3

Am Em
Lad looks at other gals
C D G gal thinks Jim Beam is handsomer than lad - he isn't bad
Am Em
call off the wedding band
C D G
nobody wants to hear that one again, play that again

Chorus

Coda

G They'll need a crane, they'll need a crane...
