

Your Heart Will Taste Green - Paul Bellows

Capo 2nd fret for original key

Instrumental

Bm A G G G D
Bm A G G G A
Bm A G G G D
Bm A G G A D

Verse 1

Bm A G
Your heart will taste green
D
Until it's had its seasoning
Bm A G
Call me once you've seen
A
The summer turn to fall
Bm A G
And only when you're raking
D
Fallen leaves from your dry garden
Bm A G
Will you have started learning
A D
To grow anything at all

Instrumental

Bm A G G G D
Bm A G G A D

Verse 2

Bm A G
And I warmed you with a blanket
D
Of snow on your front doorstep
Bm A G
Sometimes it gets most beautiful
A
As it finally turns cold
Bm A G
You can call the winter traitor
D
But here it's the lawmaker
Bm A G
Until you reach your home

A D
It will have you in its hold

Chorus

D
Now I'm not unkind but I'm
G
No longer blind
D
And I won't pretend
A
That I don't see the end of this
D
I won't mistreat you, but
G
I can't complete you
D A
All that I can be for you
D
Is a man

Instrumental

Verse 3

Bm A G
Now I don't have a checklist
D
To tell me when I've found her
Bm A G
I only have my sense
A
Of smell to point the way
Bm A G
And a heart that's seen its seasons
D
And learned to hear them coming
Bm A G
And a pure-greedy prayer for kindness
A D
If I found your door again

Chorus

Outro

D G
So that's my plan
D A D
I'm honestly trying to be a man

Instrumental
